

International Women's Day Celebration at Delhi College of Arts & Commerce

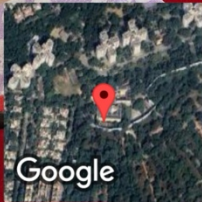

The Delhi College of Arts & Commerce enthusiastically commemorated International Women's Day on March 8, 2025, reaffirming its commitment to gender equality and empowerment.

The ceremony began with a cordial welcome for the distinguished Chief Guest, Hon'ble Justice Swarna Kanta Sharma, Judge of the Delhi High Court, and the Guest of Honour, Advocate Monika Arora, Senior Advocate of the Supreme Court of India. Other important dignitaries included Advocate Rakesh Sharma, Mr. Prashant Jain, a well-known publishing expert, and Dr. Nandini Sharma, a political and social activist.

The speakers addressed the audience, emphasising the importance of ongoing efforts to empower women, promote gender justice, and ensure equitable opportunity in all aspects of life. Hon'ble Justice Swarna Kanta Sharma addressed the beauty of being a woman via personal experiences that resonated strongly with the audience. Advocate Monika Arora emphasised that India does not celebrate women on a single day, but rather for nine days twice a year during Navratri, reflecting the country's longstanding practice of appreciating and worshipping women. Principal Prof Rajiv Chopra reminded everyone that no community can ever grow until women receive the respect, attention, and opportunity they deserve.

The event included a felicitation ceremony to recognise the Chief Guest and Guest of Honour for their outstanding contributions to justice and societal reform. The celebration provided as a strong reminder of women's perseverance, fortitude, and successes in a variety of fields, emphasising the college's commitment to promoting an inclusive and fair society.

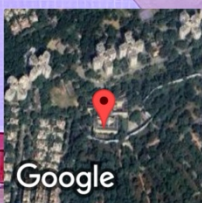

Google

 GPS Map Camera

New Delhi, Delhi, India
B635, Block E, Netaji Nagar, New Delhi, Delhi 110023, India
Lat 28.577528° Long 77.184086°
08/03/25 12:43 PM GMT +05:30

Google

 GPS Map Camera

New Delhi, Delhi, India
B635, Block E, Netaji Nagar, New Delhi, Delhi 110023, India
Lat 28.577653° Long 77.184156°
08/03/25 12:54 PM GMT +05:30

